ALLEGATIONS:

On 24 July 2010, at 1605 hours, Complainant [REDACTED] called this office, spoke with Investigator William Walsh, and registered a complaint against Police Officer Vaselio Roumbos, #19380 who carried out a warrant to search her place of residence. Complainant [REDACTED] stated that on 24 July 2010, at approximately 1300 hours, at [REDACTED] South Wolcott Avenue, Officer Roumbos:

- 1) searched the residence of Complainant [REDACTED], unnecessarily breaking numerous personal items,
- 2) pointed a weapon at a child, 03 YOA and
- 3) handcuffed several children under 12 YOA without justification.

It was further alleged that during the incident Sergeant James Padar, #1210:

- 1) utilized a rifle with a laser sighted rifle scope,

INVESTIGATION:

In her Interview, Complainant [REDACTED] stated that on the above date and time she was upstairs in her home, heard a commotion on the ground floor and went down to see what was happening. She was met by a police officer pointing a gun at her. She continued downstairs on his verbal command and saw several children, under twelve years of age, handcuffed on the front porch. Various family members filtered into the living room and an officer asked Complainant [REDACTED] to identify them and to state how many people lived at the address and how many were at home at that point in time. Complainant [REDACTED] 's sister was then allowed to take the younger members of the household away, so they were then released and went with her. Complainant [REDACTED] 's brother brought Complainant [REDACTED] 's three year-old daughter down stairs and as he did so, holding the child in front of him. An officer pointed a rifle at the child and Complainant [REDACTED] saw a bright red spot, as if from an intense beam of light, appear on the child's chest. Both Complainant [REDACTED] and her brother carrying the child called out that she was only three and that the officer had no reason to be aiming a weapon at her. Complainant [REDACTED] 's sister returned after taking the children to her home across the street. Officers went through the house, including the upstairs. When the officers had ascertained that there was no one upstairs except for a twelve year-old female cousin of Complainant [REDACTED], they returned to the main floor. While the officers were upstairs, however, they did awaken the twelve year-old female, who had been asleep in bed at the time. Gradually more relatives emerged from different parts of the house. Complainant [REDACTED] was shown a warrant justifying the presence of officers in her home and on that document she saw the name of "Officer Roumbos." After about another thirty minutes the officers left but the house remained in disorder with items upturned and strewn about. Complainant [REDACTED] said glasses were thrown from dresser tops and broken on the floor. When asked whether she meant drinking glasses or eyeglasses Complainant [REDACTED] said both kinds of glasses were broken, but added that as far as she knew no one was manhandled or maltreated in any way and that no one was injured during the incident. INDEPENDENT POLICE REVIEW AUTHORITY

Log 1038330

A copy of a Search Warrant was obtained from Unit #189, or the Narcotics and Gang Unit. Part of the narrative of the warrant request described a drug transaction observed by an undercover police officer at that location. The document further indicated that the following Department members participated in the search of the premises: Vaselios Roumbos, #19380; Michael Killeen, #19411; Anthony Hernandez, #11807; Craig Brown, #14136; Kevin Drumgoole, #19047; and Sergeant James Padar, #1210. (Attachment 6)

A number of exit photographs were taken at the end of the search, which do not display the extent of disarray and destruction alleged by Complainant [REDACTED] (Attachment 30)

The Witness Report provided by Sergeant Padar stated that at no time did Officer Roumbos, or any other officer, break or damage items in the residence of Complainant [REDACTED] nor did anyone handcuff minors, or point weapons at any child. (Attachments 18, 30)

The Witness Report provided by Officer Killeen denied observing Officer Roumbos, or any other officer at the scene, commit any of the actions alleged by Complainant [REDACTED] (Attachment 19)

The Witness Report provided by Officer Drumgoole denied observing Officer Roumbos, or any other officer at the scene, commit any of the actions alleged by Complainant [REDACTED] (Attachment 20)

The Witness Report provided by Officer Brown denied observing Officer Roumbos, or any other officer at the scene, commit any of the actions alleged by Complainant [REDACTED] (Attachment 28)

The Witness Report provided by Officer Hernandez did not recall the incident. (Attachment 29)

The Accused Report provided by Officer Roumbus denied all allegations and asserted that Officer Roumbus' ordered presence at the scene was specific to the interior search. Upon completion of the search, a copy of the warrant was left with Complainant [REDACTED] which displayed Officer Roumbus' name as the affiant. (Attachment 16)

The Accused Report provided by Sergeant Padar, who was in charge of determining what equipment was to be utilized by each officer involved in this incident, stated that no laser-targeting mechanism, or assault rifle, was assigned, or used, by him during the incident. (Attachment 27)

CONCLUSION:

Officer Vaselios Roumbos, #19380 Allegations 1–3: Not Sustained — As to his searching Complainant [REDACTED] residence and breaking several items, pointing a gun at a child and handcuffing several children, there remains only Officer Roumbos' personal word against that of Complainant [REDACTED]. There is no sufficient evidence to either prove or disprove any of these allegations against this officer.

Sergeant James Padar, #1210 Allegation 1: Not Sustained — As to the possessing and pointing of a laser-targeted assault rifle at a child, there is no sufficient evidence to either prove or disprove any of these allegations against any officers present at the scene.

Complainant [REDACTED] revealed, throughout her interview, a tendency to reverse her position (for example stating that she knew that an officer stepped on her sleeping younger cousin while later claiming that she only heard, second-hand, about such an occurrence; or initiating her complaint by attesting that officers were aggressive, pointing weapons at children, taking children outside and handcuffing them, then later stating that as far as she knew no one was manhandled or maltreated in any way and that no one was injured during the incident), or a tendency to alter information previously provided (for example stating that one officer possessed a laser targeted assault rifle and aimed it at her daughter while later stating that three officers possessed such weapons and aimed them at her daughter).

Notwithstanding the varieties of inconsistencies, and the frequency of their occurrence, in Complainant [REDACTED]'s account of the incident, her complaint was registered as valid and processed for investigation. The lack, however, of any independent eye-witness, or any video recording of any phase of the incident, renders the existing personal evidence in and of itself insufficient to act as a reasonably reliable basis from which to conclusively confirm or deny these allegations.
